

Hawaii Golf Week

Hapuna Beach – Mauna Kea – Mauna Lani North – Mauna Lani South

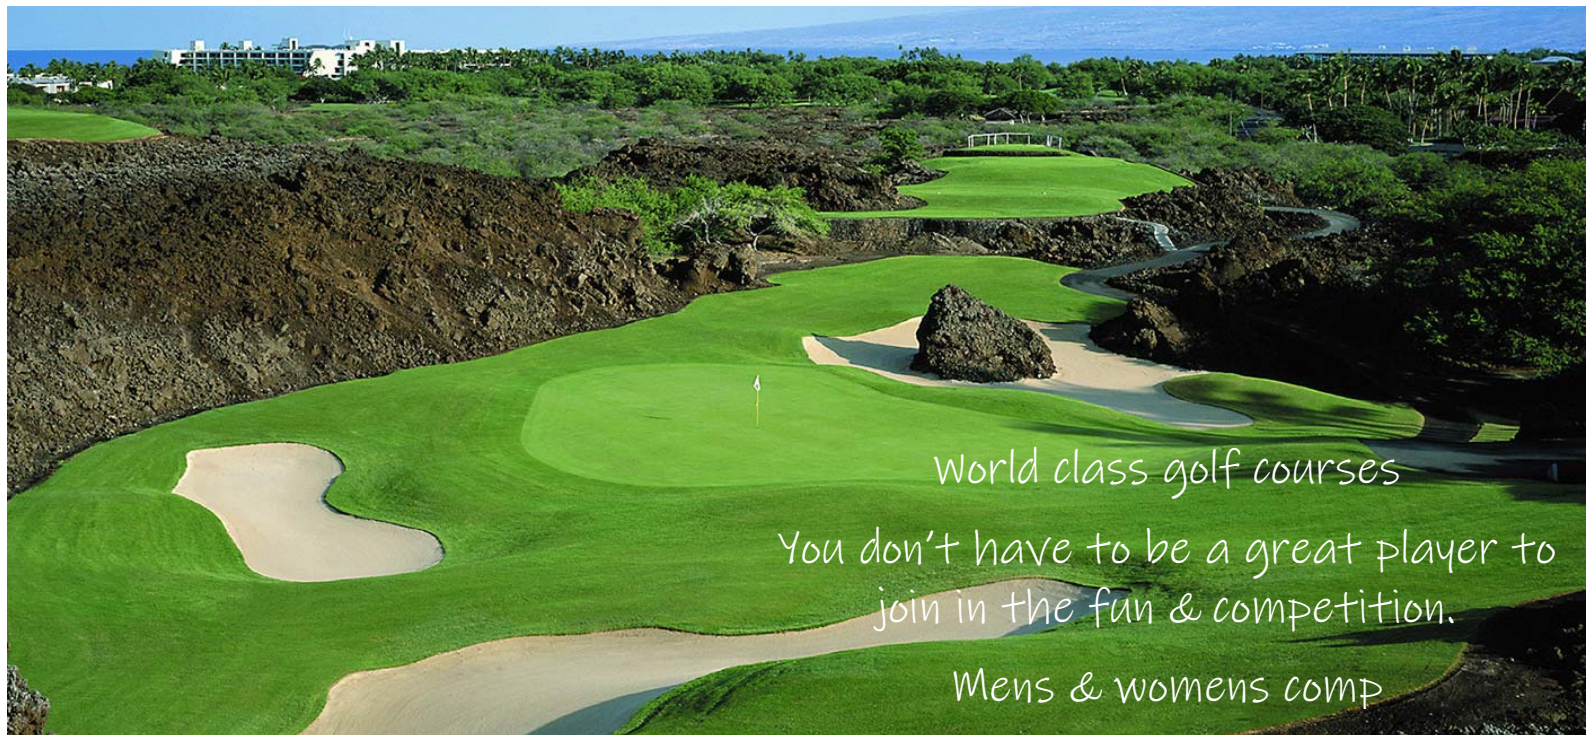

August 17th to 24th, 2019

The big Island of Hawaii is a 30-minute flight from Honolulu, on arrival at Kona airport you take a short drive down the Kohala Coast where you will find some of the finest resort golf course and beach front accommodation anywhere in the world and the temperature is perfect all year round.

The 7th Annual Hawaii Golf Week is a tournament that everyone can enjoy regardless of their golf ability. The majority of players have the opportunity to win a prize with different handicap divisions and for the low handicap players there will also be a true scratch competition.

If you take up the challenge and join us for this event, you will play a different course each day of the tournament, enjoy great company and compete with people from many different countries, plus have an opportunity to win excellent prizes. Most of all, you will enjoy a great golfing experience, lots of fun and a few cocktails at one of the best locations in the world.

The day before the tournament starts is practice day, with a round of golf at the Hapuna Beach course, the driving range and practice area will be open all day, free golf clinics and individual coaching will be available by PGA golf professionals.

World class golf courses

You don't have to be a great player to join in the fun & competition.

The courses

There are seven world class courses within 15 minutes' drive from the fantastic Hapuna Beach Prince Hotel at Mauna Kea Resort and you will play the best four of these courses in this tournament.

MAUNU LANI – North course has big wide manicured fairways that meander their way through the black lava rock. Home to the annual Hawaii State Open, this is a true championship layout.

Bring your camera this is a beauty.

MAUNU LANI – South course

The 15th hole is one of the most photographed golf holes in the world. This fantastic course was host to famous skins game when some of the world's greatest players went head to head for huge sums of money. The course is one of Hawaii's best and always in great condition.

HAPUNA BEACH

The Arnold Palmer / Ed Seay design is one of the most interesting course you will play anywhere.

A links style design with the first nine climbing from sea level to 700 feet. Amazing layout with spectacular views of the Pacific Ocean from every hole.

MAUNA KEA

The Robert Trent Jones Sr design that set the benchmark for golf in Hawaii and is still considered by many to be the best course. World renowned ocean front holes, magnificent bunkering and finely manicured fairways, a true masterpiece.

The competition

You don't have to be a great player to take part in this tournament, all you need is an official handicap and enjoy playing great courses.

The tournament is set up to be competitive but a fun event with daily prizes. The main competition will be for the best stableford scores over the four rounds.

The tournament will be played over four rounds on a different course each day. Competitors will be paired with different players each day.

As most people will have travelled a full day to get to HAWAII, the day before the tournament starts will be a practice round at Hapuna Beach golf course, plus we will have free professional golf clinic's and lessons available on the driving and practice area for anyone playing in the tournament.

There will be post round drinks each evening at The Breezeway where you will be able to see all the scores on the Tournament Score Board.

The tournament is open to women and men, there will be different handicap divisions. There will be a stableford competition in all divisions and the Championship division will also have a gross competition.

There will also be a daily fun "side bet" for those who want to enter on the day (not compulsory).

The hotel

Accommodation for the seven nights of this event is at the fabulous Hapuna Beach Prince Hotel at Mauna Kea Resort. Situated on 32 oceanfront acres, the hotel is nestled in natural bluffs overlooking the silky white sands of Hapuna Beach. In ancient times on the resort site, freshwater springs bubbled to the surface during heavy rainfall. These artesian fountains provided respite and renewal for travellers along the Kohala Coast, hence, the area is named Hāpuna or “spring” (“Spring of life”) in the Hawaiian language.

Your accommodation has been reserved in ocean view rooms and daily breakfast is included.

Two of the great courses you will play during the tournament are located within Mauna Kea Resort.
