

Vietnam Golf Week – Da Nang

March 30 to April 5 2025

There are many destinations around the world where you can stay at a nice hotel and play golf for a week on good courses. However there are very few exotic destinations that offer “7 world class golf courses” designed by the best in the business, luxury 5 star beach front accommodation, amazing food and all in an area bursting with culture and history with a number of UNESCO world heritage sites near by.

Da Nang is the new exotic golf destination that will become world renowned.

This is an opportunity to join us for a week in Da Nang on the central coast (China Beach) of Vietnam, play in the Vietnam Golf Week tournament and after the tournament you may wish to go to places like Ho Chi Minh City , Hanoi or spend a few more days in Da Nang. There are numerous activities for the non golfers in the Da Nang, Hoi An area.

The Golf Courses.

This could be the best 4 golf courses you will find in one area, anywhere. Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Luke Donald and Robert Trent Jones Jnr have all made their mark here and this an opportunity for you to play their wonderful designs.

The best way to see what you will be playing is go on line and check out these courses.

Ba Na Hills designed by Luke Donald

Da Nang Golf Club designed by Greg Norman

The Nicklaus Course at Da Nang

Hoiana Shores designed by Robert Trent Jones Jnr

The Competition & Prizes

The tournament is a stableford competition, women's and men's divisions, with daily and overall prizes. In the interest of fair play if you win an overall prize, you will only be eligible for one daily prize. As with many of our tours there will be a daily betting pool for those who wish to partake $10 entry per day- 1st 2nd & 3rd paid out (you don't have to enter this)

Handicaps We will have a slope handicap chart available for round one of the tournament. After each round player will be re-handicapped down or up depending on their day's score.

Anyone playing within 2 strokes of their handicap, there will be no change for the next round.

Score three or four, better or worse than your handicap and your handicap for the next round will be plus or minus one stroke. Score five or more strokes "better or worse" will result in, minus or plus 2 strokes for their next round.

The maximum handicap movement will be 2 strokes a day.
